The UNESCO-listed Altstadt (Old Town) offers charming narrow streets, and you'll want to explore the legendary Goldgasse district for unique boutiques and specialty shops. You'll find gifts, antiques, and locally crafted goods—perfect for picking up something special to remember your European holiday.

Sip on a warm mug of glühwein (mulled wine), and shop for festive treats and decorations. With the Alps framing the city in the distance and the sound of music in the air, Salzburg captures the essence of the season with an elegance and charm that is impossible to resist.

Much of the movie Sound of Music was filmed in and around Salzburg. Private optional tours may also include stops at some of the production locations.
